

*Religion
Communicators Council*

Dallas - Ft. Worth Chapter

E-NEWSLETTER

Dallas iMedia Network to present June program
iMedia Interfaith found at Cable Channel 99

Community television can be a powerful communication tool. The June program for the Dallas-Ft. Worth Chapter of RCC will feature Dallas iMedia Network. A tour of their studios followed by a presentation for RCC attendees will take place on Thursday, June 26.

The studios are presently located at the J. Erik Jonsson Central Branch of the Dallas Public Library in downtown Dallas. Meeting time is 12 noon to 1:30 p.m., includes lunch, networking and fellowship along with the program designed for professional development. Cost is $15 and is payable at the event. Reservations are needed. Contact Deb Christian, dchristian@umr.org, 214.630.6495 xt147 by 5:00 p.m. on Monday, June 23.

Dallas iMedia Network is the public access television system and interactive voice for the Greater Dallas community. Since 1987, Dallas iMedia Network, a private nonprofit corporation and Dallas' exclusive public access television provider, has provided member, volunteer and staff-produced television programming and a full range of media production services for Dallas area residents.

Faith-based programming including worship services, talk programs, drama and music appear on Time Warner Channel 99. Local arts, informative and entertainment shows are found on TW Cable Channel 95. Programming for, by and about youth is on TW Channel 96. See channels 44, 43, 45, respectively on Verizon Fios.

Dallas Public Library is located at 1515 Young Street (corner of Young and Ervay) across from City Hall. Parking is available for a reasonable fee. The entrance to the underground parking garage is located on the Wood Street side of the building. Driving directions are available at <http://dallaslibrary.org/directions.htm#2central>. More information about a specific meeting place in the Library will be sent as soon as it is available.

Plan now for July meeting!

Paul Fulham from Zachary Associates, an accountability marketing company that has experience with fundraising for faith-based clients will present the July meeting. We'll meet at Juliette Fowler Homes' campus on Thursday, July 24. 12 noon to 1:30 p.m. Lunch, program, networking all for $15.

He's requested that we poll our members and friends about what aspects of fundraising or planned giving would be most helpful. Also, Paul will bring us his experience using direct mail in the fund raising process. So, begin thinking what aspects of fundraising, planned giving, or direct mail usage would be of most help to you or your constituency in your job.