Pluralism - Complements interfaith nature of RCC

Mike
Ghouse

Join the Dallas-Fort Worth Chapter of Religion Communicators Council to hear Mike Ghouse, a speaker, thinker, and writer, present his take on Pluralism. Mike is a frequent guest on talk radio and local television network discussing Pluralism, interfaith, Islam, India, Multi-culturism, Terrorism, Peace, Politics and Civic issues.

Our chapter presented Mike the Norvell Slater Commercial Communicator of the year Award for his exemplary work in promoting understanding and reconciliation through his prolific writings on web sites, blogs, talk radio, TV and other electronic communication venues. He also co-chairs the center for interfaith inquiry of the Memnosyne Foundation and presides the Foundation for Pluralism. He is the president of World Muslim Congress a think tank with a simple theme: “Good for Muslims and good for the world and vice-versa.”

His comments, news analysis and columns can be found on the web sites and blogs listed at his personal web site www.MikeGhouse.net
