October chapter meeting features radio program hosts

Radio talk shows are all over the airways. Most of us listen to them at one time or another. There seems to be an endless number of topics and guests and the hosts chat on glibly. Behind the scenes (or microphone) there is more to this type of communication programming. Join the Dallas-Fort Worth chapter of RCC on Thursday, Oct. 26 as Scott JuVette and Lorri Allen, hosts of “Mornings with Scott & Lorri” on FamilyNet radio (airing on family friendly Sirius Satellite Radio 161, 6-8 a.m.) discuss what it takes to start a talk radio program and keep it going.

Besides providing our program, the popular FamilyNet News personalities will also host our meeting at the FamilyNet Studios, 6350 West Freeway, in Fort Worth. (Please note change in meeting time.) We will meet from 11:30 a.m to 1:00 p.m.

“Mornings” features breaking, national, international and business news, as well as interviews with political, cultural and religious leaders. Listeners also hear in-depth analysis of issues that are important to families, believers and seekers. It’s Christian talk and more.

Cost is $15 and includes lunch. Contact Deb Christian (dchristian@umr.org, 214.630.6495 x147) to make reservations by Monday, Oct. 23 at 5 p.m.

Plan to be there. Remember we’ll meet from 11:30 to 1:00 p.m on Thursday, Oct. 26.

Opportunities:

Wilbur Watch

Continue to note TV, radio, newspapers, movies, magazines, books in the secular media for those that best communicate religious issues, values and themes and could be possible nominees for RCC’s Wilbur Awards. Send your ideas/nominations to Wilbur Award Chairperson, Mindy Marchal, mmarchal@ctr.pcusa.org. Entry forms will be available beginning November 1, 2006.

DeRose-Hinkhouse Awards

One of the many benefits of RCC membership is the opportunity to enter this competition and win awards and recognition for your work. Chair of the awards, Karen Drummond, notes the entry information will soon be available on the national website, www.religioncommunicators.org and will also arrive in your mailbox.

Membership Renewal:

It’s that time again. Watch your mailbox (postal and electronic) in the next few weeks or go to the RCC website, www.religioncommunicators.org for your opportunity to renew your membership for 2007. Membership is a requirement to enter the DeRose-Hinkhouse Award competition.

2007 National Convention planning continues

The Louisville Chapter of RCC will welcome communicators from around the USA and from different faith groups to northern Kentucky at the annual meeting set for April 26-28, 2007. The theme is “Soaring to New Heights in Communication”. You can check out details on RCC’s national website www.religioncommunicators.org. Mark your calendar now for this event.
