Meeting Highlights

*May chapter meeting on site at
Family Net-TV in Fort Worth*

The May chapter meeting for the Dallas-Fort Worth Chapter of the Religion Communicators Council is set at the Fort Worth studios for FamilyNet-TV. FamilyNet is a 24-hour television network dedicated to providing a rich blend of family-friendly, enriching entertainment to today's family. Offered on broadcast stations, cable systems and 4DTV across North America; and owned and operated by the North American Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, FamilyNet has award-winning programs for the entire family. More than 50 hours of original, values-based programming is produced by FamilyNet.

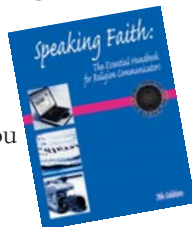

Lorri Allen

Hosted by news director Lorri Allen and other staff members, we will learn about how to work with TV. We'll also see the studios, watch a news taping and learn more about the whole FamilyNet operation.

FamilyNet News is dedicated to accurate, objective, family-focused, faith-based reporting of current events. FamilyNet News strives to be fair, interesting and promises never to embarrass viewers. FamilyNet News will not shrink from airing good news!

Slater award winners, event reprised

In 1996 the three award categories were established and named in honor of Norvell Slater, who was heard on the radio in the Dallas area since the earliest days of broadcasting here. He was for many years host of "Hymns We Love", a program during which he played a wide repertoire of hymns and religious music.

An able communicator of faith values through his love for music and for the church; Slater was able to do this in both secular and religious media. He was also a charter member of the Dallas Chapter of the RCC (formerly named RPRC Religious Public Relations Council.) The chapter is now known as the Dallas-Fort Worth Chapter.

The three awards are intended to represent what Norvell did in his career that included being a paid employee for Religion (churches), Commercial (radio & TV) and being an outstanding Life Achiever in both areas, frequently at the same time.

The Dallas Chapter of RCC's Award Committee named the three Norvell Slater Communication Award winners for work done in 2004. Presentation of award plaques and recognition of these individuals took place at the annual awards luncheon in late March. Those chosen are Mary Jacobs, Religious Communicator of the Year; Logos Bookstore, run by Rick and Susan Lewis, Commercial Communicator of the Year; and S. Nanette Geoo, Lifetime Communicator.
